The Charity Organi ath a Society have ing already established thirty-even registration centres in London in connection with the relief of distress, will don! happy to enoperate with authorities in the manner which may be found mest effective.

Registration, not only from institutions and societies, but also from private persens and employers of labour, is invited. So for as the society can goth a there is at present little serious distress in Londong which can be directly attributed to the war. The present time of year is always a time when employment slackens gwing to the holiday season. The withdrawid of a large number of workmen who have joined the colours has erested was ancies for many who might otherwise be unemployed. The society suggests that the following simple preenutions should be observed.

of That the reidential population with settled homes should have priority eve the floating population, many of "whom belong to the common-lodging-hous panied by a German import proceeded class.

2. That man living with their familishould have priority over single-amenor those living apart. 3. That application should be made

What it was pobject of this Bill is to create a Special Police Reserve Fores, the members which could be called out as Special, him "Maskee, you blong, very good Constables in times of national emergency or local disorder. The necessity for a large body of Special Constables in times of emergency has been demonstrated recently, and the usefulness of such spirited manner in which body would be considerably increased by gentlemen from all sections of the preliminary training, while the enrolment of a large body of Special Police at short notice would be -- 's facilitated by the existence of A Reserve consisting of mem efficient and very faithful service, and it who had declared their willingness serve as Special Constables. His Excellency the Governor said: might say a few words on this Bill order to avail myself of this opportunity | the Captain Superintendent of Police. This of expressing the great appreciation of the Government to those gentlemen who have rendered very valuable assistance special constables. There has been altogether enrolled 216 Europeans, 67 Portuguese, 44 Indians, and 25 Chineses: For ome days, past now the greater numbe of these special constables been actually dishauded, but there are 53 still doing duty in the Peak district in order to replace a number of constables who are still piaced, at the disposal, of the military authorities for various servicus for which a force of 150 police were lent to them, but the majority of whom are not now required. For this reason the majority of the special constables were relieved of their duties. The duties of the special constables were principally carried out at night, and the Captain Superjutendent of Police has reported that they rendered extremely officient service. He writes to me as follows: The special police performed their duties in a very efficient and consciontions manner. Mr. Jenkin was in charge of the Peak contingent, arranged the duties and drilled the men. The men on the Kowloon side had a good deal of hard and important work and showed very great attention to drill, and the Indiana were very keen.

Mass of Eruption. Constant Irritation and Burning. Many Sleep-less Nights. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Healed in 6 Weeks.

28, Ordo Hall St., Bloomsbury, London. W. C., Eng. -"The complaint first started" through scurf and dandruff deposited in my hale. My head soon became a mass of sores and cruption which was abtended by constant irritation and a hurning sensetion." It caused my bair to fall out and meant many sleepless nights owing to a terrible itching and burning sensation. I suffered in this way for over three years and tried various remedies without success. I was then recommended to try the Cutlems Soop and Ointment which I did. After frequently bathing my head with Cuticuts Soap and then applying the Outleurs Oldsment for the space of six weeks they effected a cure; they removed all the sour? and dandruff and shoroughly cleared my head of all the sores and sruption. (Signed) A. Harrison, Jan, 21, 1914. Get rid of those pimples and blackheads. Cuticura Soap and Ointment will belp you when all else fails."
